Lower Providence Township Supervisors to Host Open House
'One Stop' Opportunity to Hear About Current, Future Projects

LOWER PROVIDENCE TOWNSHIP (April 5, 2017) – The Lower Providence Township Supervisors want residents, businesses and brokers to know about what's currently happening in the Township and the many exciting things that are on the horizon. The supervisors will provide a unique "one stop" opportunity to learn about projects in and around the Township at an Open House to be held on Wednesday, April 19 at Chadwick's Restaurant, 2750 Egypt Road, Audubon. Doors will open at 5:00 p.m. with a presentation at 5:45 p.m.

The supervisors will provide information on residential and commercial development, transportation planning initiatives, road paving, as well as recreation and cultural projects. In addition, representatives from several key projects will have exhibits on display throughout the evening.

"We're looking forward to updating the community about projects and improvements that the board has been working on" said Colleen Eckman, Board of Supervisors Chairwoman. "They'll be able to hear first-hand about everything from large commercial developments to smaller-scale residential subdivisions to traffic initiatives."

Exhibitors will include: WB Homes townhome project at Germantown Pike and River Road; Providence Place assisted living facility at the former Collegeville Inn; Westover Companies, new owner of the Audubon Village Shopping Center; Audubon Land Development, Audubon Square V new retail shops and hotel; John James Audubon Center at Mill Grove, new art and conservation center; McMahon Associates, Park Avenue/Crawford Road/Eagleville Road improvement project and Ridge Pike West Mobility Study; Greater Valley Forge Transportation, Route 422 Bridge; and the Lower Providence Township Police Department.

You're asked to contact Bill Roth, broth@lowerprovidence.org, to RSVP.
